| PROGRAM-BASED INITIATIVES typically involve educational programs or events that promote healthy habits or physical activity such as fun runs, bike rides, public yoga or wellness programs. | PROJECT-BASED INITIATIVES typically involve tangible improvements or the purchase of goods and materials including:
- Walking, bicycling, hiking and nature trails
- Park improvements that promote physical activity
- Purchase of recreational equipment (snow shoes, bike helmets, pedometers)
- Creation and care of community & edible gardens
- Parks, trails, and conservation master plans
- Tree Planting initiatives
- Education about environmental and conservation issues of local interest | The Catskill Edible Garden Project (CEGP) works with schools and community organizations to design edible gardens as living, outdoor educational and gathering spaces. These projects offer access to healthy local food, “hands on” experience and exposure to food and agriculture as important aspects of our community and culture.
Sullivan Renaissance partners with Catskill Mountainkeeper and Cornell Cooperative Extension to provide funding support, technical assistance, education and programming. |
